THE COUPLE The twosome met on an online dating site and bonded over their shared love of the sea.

THE DETAILS With close friends and family in tow, Nicole and Dominic traveled to St. John's to be wed at Hawksnest Beach. The celebration continued back in Chicago at a Shedd Aquarium reception, where blue-and-white décor, paired with the Shedd's collection of stunning marine life, served as a reminder of the site of their vows.

THE PARTY From contemporary tunes by the Black Eyed Peas and Lady Gaga to old-school standards played by the Michael Lerich Orchestra, the party was in full swing—ahem, swim—all night. —CG
