

SCENE Chicago Weddings

Table numbers hand-carved by the groom's father

Fondant cake with gold dots and trim by TopsyCake

Dinner by Entertaining Company was complemented by gold-rimmed china, peach server plates and phantom gold flatware.

Michael and Jessica posed for photos on the Columbus Avenue Bridge. The bride topped off her White by Vera Wang dress with a "something borrowed" fur shawl. The groom chose a Hugo Boss suit and Gucci shoes.

JESSICA GRIFFIN & MICHAEL PFLUEGL

March 2, 2013

The Ivy Room

Photos by Kent Drake Photography

THE COUPLE Michael proposed to Jessica at St. Michael's church in Old Town, the scene of their first date—St. Mike's annual summer party—before celebrating with friends at The J. Parker.

THE DETAILS LK Events helped HMR Designs, where the bride works as an events designer, beautify the reception space with citrus- and blush-hued florals and endless warm candlelight.

THE PARTY A friend played a hammered dulcimer during the cocktail reception. Later, the Greenlight band brought the music, including the pair's first dance to "Honey Bee" by Blake Shelton. —Gabriel Charles Tyler

The bride's white, sweet pea bouquet by HMR Designs

Jessica's mother made her famous chocolate chip cookies as favors.